SUBJECT: WB/G SITREP: FEBRUARY 28, 2005 (1200 HOURS LOCAL)
-- FIVE DEAD AND MORE THAN 50 INJURED IN TEL AVIV SUICIDE
BOMBING

This is a joint ConGen Jerusalem/Embassy Tel Aviv cable.

1. (SBU) Summary: A suicide bomber affiliated with Palestinian Islamic Jihad detonated an explosive device outside a Tel Aviv nightclub at 2320 hours February 25, killing four people and injuring another 55 Israeli civilians, five of them severely and eight moderately. A fifth victim died of her injuries overnight February 27-28. The PA released a statement February 26 condemning the bombing, charging that the attack sought to sabotage Palestinian national interests, and promised to pursue the perpetrators. PA President Abbas also met on February 26 with PA security chiefs and ordered immediate action in response to the bombing. On February 26, the IDF imposed a curfew on the West Bank village of Deir al-Ghusun, near Tulkarm, for several hours, arresting five Palestinians, including two brothers of the Tel Aviv suicide bomber. The IDF also arrested the local Imam in the village. PA Interior Minister Nasir Yusif announced on February 26 that PA security forces arrested three Palestinians from Deir al-Ghusun suspected of being associates of the bomber. End Summary.

West Bank

-- Deaths: In Qalqilya, a Hamas activist died on February 26 from injuries received during clashes with the IDF earlier this month.

-- Attack/Injury: An Israeli Border Policeman shot and wounded a Palestinian woman on February 26 outside the Ibrahim Mosque/Tomb of the Patriarchs in Hebron after the woman attempted to stab the policeman with a knife.

3. (SBU) ARRESTS/SECURITY:

-- Curfew/Arrests: The IDF on February 26 imposed a curfew on the West Bank village of Deir al-Ghusun, near Tulkarm, and arrested five Palestinians, including two brothers of the Tel Aviv suicide bomber. The IDF also arrested the local Imam in the village. The IDF lifted the curfew several hours later (see "Israel").

-- Arrests: Palestinian Authority (PA) Interior Minister Nasir Yusif announced on February 26 that PA security forces arrested three Palestinians from Deir al-Ghusun in connection with the suicide bombing in Tel Aviv. The three arrested men are suspected on being associates of the bomber.

-- Arrests: The IDF arrested nine Palestinians February 27 in the villages of Idhna, near Hebron, and Illar and Attil villages, near Tulkarm. One of the arrested individuals includes an officer from the PA intelligence service, the Mukhabarat.

-- Incursions/Arrests: The IDF entered overnight February 27-28 the Balata refugee camp near Nablus and Ramallah, arresting at least five Palestinians.

-- Arrests: Israeli police announced on February 27 the arrest of eight individuals, five Israelis and three Palestinians, suspected of fraudulently acquiring and selling West Bank land owned by Palestinians.

-- Security Development: The IDF on February 26 imposed as many as 13 flying checkpoints in the northern West Bank in response to the February 25 suicide bombing in Tel Aviv.

-- Security Development: Palestinian gunmen on February 27 fired gunshots at an Israeli vehicle traveling near the village of Zawiya in the northern West Bank. There were no injuries reported from this incident.

14. (SBU) POLITICAL DEVELOPMENTS:

-- The PA on February 26 released a statement that condemned the February 25 suicide bombing in Tel Aviv, charging that the attack sought to sabotage Palestinian national interests, and promised to pursue the perpetrators. PA President Abbas also met on February 26 with PA security chiefs and ordered immediate action in response to the bombing.

-- PA security advisor Jibril Rajoub declared that the Palestinian factional talks scheduled to take place in Cairo on March 5 are postponed until March 15 in the wake of the February 25 suicide bombing in Tel Aviv.

-- PA President Abbas departed Ramallah on February 27 for Amman, en route to the United Kingdom to attend the March 1 London Conference.

-- Palestinian media reported that Prime Minister Quraya, appointed PA Minister for Civil Affairs Minister Mohammad Dahlan as the PA's Coordinator on the Gaza Disengagement Plan.

Gaza

15. (SBU) ATTACKS:
